What Our Learners Say

“

Really fantastic. A lovely, enthusiastic tutor called Ed, who takes the time to explain and ensure everyone has fully understood and caught up in the session, but also provides extra work for those of us who are advanced too.”

Data Analyst Skills Bootcamp

“

Very knowledgeable presenting team with some very thought - provoking material. Am thoroughly enjoying the course so far and it's good to have plenty of time for discussion and interaction.”

Leadership and Management in Construction Skills Bootcamp

“

The feedback from our employees has all been positive. The course has given the participants a really good overview of the spreadsheets element of the course allowing the participants to learn new skills and cement previous knowledge.”

Frequently Asked Questions

What is Skills Bootcamps?

Skills Bootcamps are here to support you to develop the necessary skills to secure or progress in a job. Qualifications received at the end of the course will be dependent on the course provider. You will be offered an interview with an employer (who will have a job available) at the end of the course.

How do I qualify?

To be eligible for a Skills Bootcamp in Swindon and Wiltshire, you must be 19 or older, have the right to work in the UK. You must also live or work in Wiltshire or Swindon.

How many Skills Bootcamps can I do?

You can only undertake one Skills Bootcamp per funding year (April 1st to March 31st) and must not be on more than one course at any given time.

What subjects are available?

Currently we have the following subjects available; Logistics & Transport, Digital & Tech skills, Construction & Green skills, Education & Early Years, Leadership & Management, Health & Social Care. We are always looking to develop our offer so if you can't see a bootcamp that is right for you please get in touch!

I'm self employed, do I qualify?

For the self-employed, Skills Bootcamps can help them acquire new skills to expand their business, take on new clients or offer new services.

How do I book?

Book directly with the provider, or get in touch with us via skillsbootcamps@wiltshire.gov.uk or call 01225 713060.
